PARTNERS IN ACQUISITION

The 5,953-acre Barr Hammock Preserve was purchased between 2006 & 2010. Alachua County provided funding from the Alachua County Forever Bond, and the 2008 & 2016 Wild Spaces Public Places sales taxes. Other funding was through Florida Communities Trust Grants, North American Wetland Conservation Act grants, a donation from the Whitehurst family, and the Southwest Florida Water Management District. The preserve was purchased to protect, preserve and enhance the unique natural and cultural resources found on the property and to provide an enjoyable and educational passive recreational experience.

Alachua County Forever is a land conservation program that seeks to acquire, improve and manage environmentally significant lands.

Florida Communities Trust is a state land acquisition grant program that provides funding to local governments and eligible non-profit environmental organizations for acquisition of community-based parks, open space and greenways that further outdoor recreation and natural resource protection needs identified in local government comprehensive plans.

The North American Wetlands Conservation Act provides matching grants to organizations and individuals who have developed partnerships to carry out wetlands conservation projects in the United States, Canada, and Mexico for the benefit of wetlands-associated migratory birds and other wildlife.

The USDA, Natural Resources Conservation Service manages a Federally-owned conservation easement on this property and contributes to the management of the property.

The Conservation Trust for Florida, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) non-profit land trust that partnered with Alachua County in preparing the grant applications to acquire the Preserve.
